Dear Salatiso,

I trust you are well.

Please find attached the amended plan as well answers to your comments that were not affected.

Please also take note the purpose of the plan is not to punish anyone but to ensure that Lukhanyo is well looked after and both parties have parental responsibilities and rights.

If there was any intention on our client to punish you she would have already approached the maintenance court in terms of section 10, which of course is not necessary as our clients wants you to be responsible and enjoy your time with your son.

Kindly let me know as to when it will be suitable for you to come to our offices and sign the plan if you are happy with the plan.

Yours Faithfully

Good Day

Please note that I am yet to receive the final draft as per your commitment, I am not aware of any issues with my primary email but as a precaution going forward please cc salatiso.mdeni@gmail.com which serves as my secondary email.

Pursuant to the medical aid provision please find attached for your client to review and confirm as follows;

- Populate Section 3 page 2; Section 4 (including sub-sections) page 3 - 5; starting date page 6
- For full compliance to Section 5 a written statement under oath confirming knowledge, understanding and acceptance by your client will suffice. A caveat limiting liability to only information provided by your client must be included in the statement.

When you return the document please make sure both proof of prior medical aid and termination for existing cover must be supplied as required by Section 28(b) of the Medical Schemes Act.

Regards,
Salatiso

Dear Salatiso,

1. We are indeed dealing this matter and we want to wrap it as quickly as possible.
2. Your changes were discussed with client and we had to stick to the law and precedents.
3. You will have the finalised draft by tomorrow for your final comment.
4. Our client has instructed us that Lukhanyo should be on your medical aid and we humbly request your medical aid details so that we can incorporate them in the final draft.
5. It is our specific instruction not to punish you or our client, your both the parents and you should definitely take into consideration the best interests of the child.
6. Many thanks for your properly typed feedback which we will of course, supplement the plan based on. We will further address concerns if there are any which are inconsistent with the law and precedents.
7. I hope the above is in order.

Yours Faithfully

Good Day

Can you please update me on the progress from your side?

I have taken the liberty to compile the attached in case any of my questions/ comments were vague, this should clarify them.

In the interest of time can we stick to a 5 day (from time of receipt - exclusive of weekends) turnaround time for feedback? It's in everyone's interests to wrap this up as quickly as possible so all uncertainties don't impact my son negatively.

Salatiso

Good Day

Please find attached, overall I have no issues with the contents hence the minimal comments.

Please note that there may be some minor comments as I'm yet to get the opinion of my legal advisor but I don't anticipate these to be much.

Dear Salatiso,

1. The above matter refers. Please note that we act on behalf of Mpho (our client).
2. Our client has instructed us to draft a Parenting Plan for the young Lukhanyo.
3. Please find attached the Parenting Plan and consider it.
4. If you are happy with it, we can schedule a meeting wherein both of you will sign the Plan.
5. If you are not happy you also welcomed to highlight whatever you are not happy with so that we can resolve it.
6. If you further need legal representation, you can get your own independent legal practitioner.
7. All of our client's rights remain reserved.
