Good morning

Please forward the following;

- The Pediatrician details,
- Schedule of all his planned appointments,

Going forward for all planned doctor's visits you'll send me a schedule and if unplanned do tell me as soon as you know please. The next visit is especially critical because I want the doctor's opinion on my son sleeping over.

I'm of the opinion he should get circumcised while still young, you can consult with whomever and revert. The doctor should also advise.

Regards
Salatso

Hi Salatso

Lukhanyo goes to Radebe in Park Lane.

We have no scheduled appts left as we do injections at Dischem - so you will have to make an special appt.

Re circumcision I will have to consult with my family as all Mkosana boys go to the bush.

Hi

Family would like to know if that's how you were circumcised?

But they are not in agreement. They want to keep within our tradition.

Good day

You always retain the right to do what is in the child's best interest, this includes restraining contact when such is justified. My only test to your controls will be the basis of justification.

U Solo only went along for the ride and to keep Ntobeko company, he wasn't supposed to have contact with my son.

Mdeni

I don't think that (Solo) was communicated with the rest of your family - your sister also said she had the flu and had taken her son to Dr day before for the flu.

Everyone who comes into house or in contact with Lukhanyo I ask re their health as I can't give him anything medicine wise at this age apart from panado - didn't think I'd have to do it with you.

It's done now - let's just move on - just brought it to your attention for future references.

Hi

On the plan you're busy with please include a section on property ownership.

I've noted that because I don't know the required quantities I buy based on estimation. So the section must address ownership of property in case of excess or redundancy. Both parties retain ownership of the property they provide, perishable or otherwise and it is incumbent on the party entrusted with such to promptly advise the other party in case of such.

Something along those lines.

Salatiso

Good Day

It's come to my attention that Msitheli couldn't make the time as previously confirmed, apologies for this. In future if this is an inconvenience when you confirm the visit time also specify the duration.

In the interest of progress I've formally outsourced the drafting of the plan on my side, if you've already started please let me know if you want to use your document as a base and I will communicate as such. There is key provision I have requested to be on the document in the interest of discouraging an adversarial relationship. In case of a dispute I'd prefer we have an advisory layer who will hopefully offer enough guidance to avoid litigation. To facilitate this we can each nominate a person we deem for this purpose; from my side Mrs. Sidlova will fulfill this. You can add your own nominee as per criteria you deem suitable, in my case she fulfills the role of being a trustee to my estate so in case of my demise there will be continuity. You are not obligated to do this but on my side even during my lifetime she will have a power of authority on certain matters.

If you have any objections/ comments please bring them forth.

Salatiso

Well Mpho it's not as though I have a choice bow do I?

Firstly I ask you a long time ago to give a weekly schedule so that I can plan in advance and you didn't. Then I make sure to ask you to give me the plan on Mondays and you wait until the 11th hour to confirm, giving me hours you know fully well I'm most likely at work.

But it's cool, I'll be there within the hour. Remember though soon enough I'll be asking the family advocate to make a determination of who's best suited between me and you to provide a family home for my son.

Hi,

I think going forward we need to have set weekly time for you to visit Likhanyo so there's no confusion.

If you had not dropped the phone while I was still speaking to you or picked up when I called you back you would have heard that I was 10mins away.

I had no idea who was coming as last 2 times you've come to see Likhanyo you stated you will come btwn 4-5pm. And your family generally comes 30-60mins later than stated time.

If you want to make up time and see Likhanyo this weekend or Friday you are welcome to.

Mpho,

The way this is supposed to work is you're supposed to allocate a duration for the whole visit as per your availability and what you deem is reasonable i.e. 15/30/45/60 minutes etc.

Then you confirm the time, it is my duty to make sure that I arrive within the allocated period and any late or early arrival will be allowed at your discretion.

When you ask me to confirm a specific time like 15:30 it puts me in an impossible position because I am susceptible to extrinsic factors like traffic, unplanned events etc. Literally all you have to do is to tell me I have so much time within these hours and I will make it work.

I am deliberately giving you the carte blanche to lay this foundation because when our positions are swopped I'll simply reciprocate based on your foundation. The 6 months I allowed was, apart from other reasons meant to test the provisions before they are codified in a contract.

Salatiso

Thursday 4-5,

Regarding the item, because I didn't know the specification and quantities I bought both diapers. My expectation is that you use what is suitable and whatever it isn't you return it, you are under no obligation to use what isn't suitable.

This is the consequence of you providing inadequate information because from inception I asked you to be as detailed as possible when sending me the list including quantities, something you elected not to do and as such I have to guess.

In life I believe the measure of fairness in any decision is if one would feel the same if the consequences of their decisions were borne by themselves.

How would you feel if I sent you that garbage you drafted with your attorneys if the positions were reversed?

In the document;

1) You have blatantly lied. You deliberately changed the time of our breakup to imply I broke up with you after my son was conceived thus implying I somewhat wanted to abscond my obligation. Mpho I know you changed the version to suit your own interests when telling the story to your people and until now I did not care, unlike you I don't need people's approval to vindicate my decisions. But for your to lie in a document that could potentially be placed before a court, really do you want your son to have a mother with a criminal offence for perjury?

2) Then you display your malicious intent to deprive me of contact with my son. The irony is you know my residence are better suited for that child than yours are, that's why you stayed with me in excess of 2 years yet I can't recollect a single night I spent in yours.

3) Then you shamelessly pass off your financial obligations towards your child to me, really? The R3000 your are demanding is baseless. Since my son's birth I've never spent in excess of R3000, despite; telling you every month to supply me with what he needs and consistently honouring it, not just my half but wholistically. I gave you the option for him to be on my medical aid or reimburse you monthly if you can't afford it. Then just so you know that child's tertiary education is already catered for, there's a policy paid for a year in advance to ensure he can afford to at least afford to get a half a million education inflation adjusted.

Consistently I have been nothing short of the father that child needs yet consistently you've gone out of your way to ensure I get the least contact, he doesn't spend time in the same house you considered home in excess of a year?

Why would you put your malicious intentions before the interests of your own child?

I'd advise your to change your approach, put your selfish intentions aside and replace them with the best for your child.

Regards,
Salatiso

Hi

Lukhanyo has his 16 week injections tomorrow - can you cover the bill? The last time it was around R1800.

Hi Mpho,

Why would you wait until the day before to tell me something that you've known about all along?

And isn't this supposed to be covered on his medical aid?

Regards

Salatiso

Good day

Please note I'm still waiting for your response.

When you send it please also confirm the exact cover for the medical aid. I would hate to be in a situation where my son's cover is less than adequate when I offered to either have him on mine or reimburse you to have him on an equivalent option.

Regards

Salatiso

Hi

Stage 4 pampers
Bepanthen bum cream
Milton sterilizer

And as per your request I will be giving back the 2/3 jumpers that I had kept from clothes you had given, that fit Lukhanyo, as he outgrew them about a month ago. I'll leave them at the house for when you visit Wed/Thurs.

Regards
Mpho

Good day

Today a new medical aid card was dropped, it'll be effective from the first of next month with the current Momentum plan terminating on the last day of this month.

The plan doesn't have restrictions on doctors and hospitals so Buggs can go anywhere, for my sanity however please notify me ahead for any scheduled/ routine visits.

Should you have any issues I'm here,

Regards,
Salatiso

Please make sure Buggs is not confined to where you applied the volatile organic compound.

I can barely breathe in your sitting room, for his lungs the chemical alone does more damage let alone the asphyxiation.

Salatiso
