Hi

Lukhanyo came home with only 1 of his NB sneakers.

Could he please come home with his other one tomorrow.

Thanks

Good day

I dropped the shoe this morning. Going forth dress Buggz only in the clothing that will be in his bag today on the days he comes here.

This will ensure there's no more 'disasters' prompting you to tell me what I do anyway. If Buggz loses a shoe while playing or in the car again there'll be no need to make it as if he doesn't have other shoes or the shoe is lost.

Keep what you are sentimental about there, he's got enough clothes here. If he's running short of clothes or shoes there you need only tell me and I will resolve that problem.

Regards,

No one said anything about a disaster - just asked the sneaker come back.
